

Marston slams 'Amateurs'.

"You don't get to be the best by staying at home", exclaims star man.

3 times, West Totton champion, Phil Marston, blasted the non-attendees at last weeks 'Craig David Testimonial'. Speaking out after the epic rally-fest, recently cleared Marston said: "I am born to do it, perhaps these other guys aren't".

Durkin gets to grips with life after 'BigBoy':

Kev Durkin took another step on the road to mastering his new racquet, by not actually destroying it, at last weeks 'Craig David Testimonial'. After a polished performance in the third game, the Silver Fox was said to be 'More than happy' with the new beast, which incidentally was not bought on ebay for £10.

Trio to appear before Grand Squash Jury:

Buckley, Durkin Snr and Pollinger will this week appear before a West Totton Astra Dome Select Committee, to explain their actions, in the wake of last week's 'Craig David Testimonial'. The three, currently dubbed 'The Part Time Performers' could offer only lame excuses for their non-appearance, which left one young fan in tears. In a heartfelt moment, a young wheelchair-bound fan who had travelled from Armenia to be in the crowd wailed "I love Dan Pollinger, he's my hero and for him not to be here is the worst thing I could have imagined". Buckley and Durkin Snr will also have to answer to fans, who'd turned out in numbers to see their 'John Rambo Re-match'. In a gesture of goodwill, Marston and Durkin Jnr have offered to fly the young Armenian lady back for next month's 'Habana Classic'. They are now her favourite players.

Durkin Snr to be sponsored by Clix Mints?:

The tabloid press was awash with rumours that Rich Durkin will be sponsored by Clix Mints next season. His current deal with Totton Nearly New, is due to expire at the end of this tour and Clix are eager to pin him down to a deal worth 'several pence'. A spokesperson was unavailable for comment.

In similar news, Tommi Buckley has moved quickly to dispel rumours that he is to be sponsored by 'Gay Exchange' next season. "There is no truth in the rumour", slammed the Fin. "My current deal with Volvo runs until 2012 and I am very happy with this".

Be Sure to keep it locked to Squash News. More insights from the Arena next week.